Crate and Edward McDonald, two brakeman, were standing. Crate either fell or jumped from the platform and was instantly killed, and McDonald was badly scalded about the face and head. The engineer and fireman both escaped injury. The grate was directly under them and the steam and scalding water shot backward, thus missing them. The locomotive was disabled, and was sent to the repair shop. Saw-mill (2).--The boiler of a saw-mill on the Walker lot, south of Webb City, Mo., exploded January 5th. Judge Cook, a lawyer, was instantly killed. John Rosenthal, the engineer, was...
