Excerpt: . . . what the ancient Egyptians felt about the Nile, and even at present a Swiss patriot might well invoke the mountains and rivers to protect him and his house against foreign enemies. But one step follows another. The mountains are asked to listen; this, too, is to a certain extent intelligible still; for why should we address them, if they were not to listen The sun is called far-seeing--why not Do we not see the first rays of the rising sun, piercing through the darkness, and glancing every morning at our roof 1 Do not these rays enable us to see 1 Then, why should not the sun be called far-lighting, far-glancing, far-seeing 1 The rivers are called mothers! Why not Do they not feed the meadows, and the cattle on them Does not our very life depend on the rivers not failing us with their...

Here is the finest ebook i have got read until now. It really is simplistic but excitement within the 50 percent in the book. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.
