In order to throw some light upon the causes leading up to this state of affairs we consider it wise to publish an old letter, February 17, WM, irom Inspector B. H. Burr: I recently had the opportunity of visiting New Orleans and Beta Phi Chapter. I found that we have as fine a set of fellows individually there as any where, and that they are up to our standard of men, but their chapter organization is very weak. There is good excuse for this on account of their surroundings. Tulane, you know, is scattered all over the city--the academic in one place, the law in another, and the medical in yet another. Our membership is thus scattered, and the work hours in the different departments so conflict that there is groat difficulty in getting a meeting hour suitable to all. Notwithstanding the obstacles,...

Here is the finest ebook i have got read until now. It really is simplistic but excitement within the 50 percent in the book. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.
