Dover Publications Inc., United States, 1996. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Charles M. Russell (illustrator). 208 x 135 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. The Native American was a true lover of nature and close observer of the sights and sounds about him. He delighted in composing tales that offered imaginative explanations for everything--from simple stories about creation to fanciful accounts of how animals acquired certain physical characteristics. This entertaining collection of 22 stories, compiled nearly a century ago by a devotee of Indian lore who considered them well-worth saving, recounts many of the legends told to him by members of the Blackfeet, Chippewa and Cree tribes. Here are intriguing explanations of How the Ducks Got Their Fine Feathers, Why the Kingfisher Always Wears a War-Bonnet, Why the Chipmunk s Back Is Striped, Why Blackfeet Never Kill Mice, How the Otter Skin Became Great Medicine, Why the Mountain-Lion Is Long and Lean, How the Man Found His Mate, Why the Birch-Tree Wears the Slashes in Its Bark and many other tales rich in fanciful characters. Told in simple, direct language and enhanced with 32 illustrations by famed cowboy artist Charles M. Russell, these fables will delight children, lovers of tall tales and students of Native American culture.
