Createspace, United States, 2011. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 254 x 203 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This book may be read as a folk-tale carrying a firm religious message. It is interesting from many points of view. Theologically, it has important things to say about one s firmness and steadfast belief in God - internally or externally - their eternal and never-ending search for the basis for this belief, and their willingness to accept the consequences for those beliefs. Socially, it unmasks the underlying and deep-rooted fountains of centuries of prejudices in developing the corpus of western religiosity as we now know it. His diversions called attention to the true nature of his passion and unrelenting regard for life which underlined his encounters with overbearing conflicts and decisions he faced during his journey. While searching for material for this book, - although it may be read as folklore, it was no small part of my intention to enable readers to study the theological writings - including those outside the familiar corpus of our religious upbringing. My primary intention was to invite inquiry to...
