Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Art Studies for Schools: Or Hints on the Use of Reproductions of High Art in the Schoolroom The results obtained by the teaching of drawing in the public schools, in a systematic way, have proved the wisdom of those who were pioneers in the work in the early seventies. It was to be expected that this universal development of the art instinct in our young people would lead to the demand for high art in schools - at least so far as the placing of good examples before the eyes of the pupils is concerned - and this demand is being met by thoughtful educators everywhere. It is our purpose in these pages to show what practical use can be made of pure examples of the pictorial art in inculcating lessons of permanent value in youthful minds; and also how they can be made auxiliaries to the regular school studies, such as history, geography, literature, and science. In teaching art in schools it is an excellent idea to present groups of subjects appropriate to the...
