Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Black and Red March 1909, Vol. 1 The Fifth Form have the use of the Library as a sitting-room, while the Fourth and Third share a spare class-room. As the younger boys are not so fond of quiet and intellectual recreations as their elders, they will have a large play-room, where they can exercise their young lungs to their heart s content. We have enough electric light to make the building ever more conspicuous by night than it is by day, and our own water supply - plenty of it, both hot and cold. The School Laundry is just completed, and we hope to see the Gymnasium ready very shortly. Owing to the distance of the School from the town (one and a quarter miles from the Jubilee Hospital), it has been arranged with the Electric Railway Co. to run a special car out to the school gates twice a day. During the first week of February this car did not run, and the day-boys had the novel experience of riding to school in...

Reviews

This book is definitely not simple to begin on studying but quite fun to see. I actually have read and that i am sure that i will gonna read through yet again once again in the foreseeable future. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.
