This book has all the contents and syllabus prescribed for students of English Methodology of all Universities. It gives the readers, an instant understanding of topics like, methods, techniques of teaching English language. A Model lesson plan for prose and poetry is included. A model SAT records is the main feature of this book. A student of B.Ed, DIET colleges can read this book and appear for an exam without much effort. This book also helps the teachers of Colleges of Education to teach better in class rooms. Among the different methods of teaching English, Direct method has more advantages, if it is followed strictly. Hence this is the exact guide to people who wish to become good, effective and great teachers. A native speaker has English environment around him or her. But, in a country like India it is hardly found. The educated people and teachers are the agents of vicarious environment. Books like this one can be included in this category, making every reader think, feel directly in English. This book really motivates students who are preparing for general English in any competitive exam. (jacket).
