Excerpt: . . . notes to be a legal tender in payment of all debts, public and private, within the United States, except duties on imports and interest, and c. ; but it cannot be said that the debt claimed by the plaintiffs is a debt due and payable either as a public or private debt within the, United States, and to no other class of debts than those referred to in the Act can it be applicable. A debt due and payable in Nova Scotia, in law, -can only be liquidated by the moneys mentioned in the Currency Act of the Province. Dollars and cents of the United States currency, if not referable solely to the dollar and cent current in that country when the contract was made, must refer to a dollar and cent current for all purposes; but, as I have said, the paper issue...
