Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Catalogue of Swanbrough Stock Farm: The Property of J. W. Swanbrough, Waukegan, Illinois After over twenty years experience in breeding, handling and developing horses owned by myself and other parties, I ought to know the qualities most desired by the public in the road carriage and turf horse, and have selected my horses to meet those requirements. My stallions are standard and registered - except Lord Lytton - and are all choicely bred and individually good. They have been selected not only for their rich breeding in speed and blood lines, but also on account of their size, bone, substance, finish, quality and perfect soundness. All can not breed winners on the turf, but if the farmer breeds a horse with size, style and action, he can always sell them for a remunerative price, and the more speed they show and the better they are bred the more money they will bring. Farmers should not sell their standard fillies, but keep them and breed to a standard horse of the most fashionable breeding, and they...
