Tale of Three Sisters

By Linda Regula

Createspace, United States, 2011. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Growing up on the wooded slopes of Noah s Mountain, three sisters are trapped in poverty and violence. A year after fourteen-year old Tressa Stone is sold into a horrific marriage by her uncaring father, she finally escapes a vicious husband, nearly five times her age. Pretending to be an adult, Tressa now lives and works in Columbus, Ohio. Her employer, Barb Harris, and landlady, Sally Towns, have not only taken this fiery-haired young woman under their caring wings, but are also encouraging her to get a GED. When Tressa s husband, Zeff Season, attacks her on a lonely city street, Dustin Nash comes to her rescue. Dustin, a Marine Sergeant, is attracted to the mysterious young woman. However, discovering their age difference, he must be content to exchange friendly letters with her after his sudden deployment to Iraq. Following her divorce, Tressa also gains legal emancipation from her father. Working grueling night shifts as a waitress at the Glowing Lantern Cafe, she struggles to save money, find a home, and get an education in order to give...
