The meanness of Pizarrcs education was publicly known, from his not being able to write his own name, which was always inserted by his secretary between two strokes, which he drew with a pen. He was never married, but had several concubines, fome of them the daughters and sisters of the Incas; however, we dont find that he left any children behind him. Nature had endowed him with fome good qualities, the moll remarkable of which was his bravery, but his ambition was boundless; he never scrupled to facrisice his honour to his interest, and his cruelty rendered him a disgrace to human nature. His fate was in fome measure like that erf Almagrc his unfortunate associate, like him he died a violent death, like him was a victim to ambition, and like him went to the grave in obscurity aster a lise of splendor. The conspirators had no fooner compleated this bloody scene, than they returned to the market-place, declaring that the tyrant was dead, and proclaimed the young Almagro Governor of Peru. For all the friends of Almagro had assembled while the others were attacking the Marquis in his palace, and securing his guards, prevented his receiving any assistance; They alfo secured all the horses and arms in the city, and commanded all the inhabitants who refused to join them, not to stir out of their houses without leave. They plundered the houses houses ofthe...
