Not illustrated. 1904 Excerpt: .and from what we know of the condition of the groups, there are at least ioo persons ready for baptism in the out stations who did not get baptized because the spring visits to the groups could not be made, and of course the number of catechumens will be correspondingly large. Considering the war, the outlook is about as encouraging as it has ever been in the history of the station. New believers are coming in since the scene of war moved over to Manchuria in ever increasing numbers. The Tong Hak society, if not dead, is very subdued at present. Japanese garrisons in all the towns along the main road make the country more secure thn it ever was before, and have a wholesome influence in suppressing injustice among the native officials and enforcing sanitary regulations whenever necessary. We renew our arguments of last year for a new station in the northern part of this province. Kang Kai and Cho San circuits would come in the territory of the new station, also all the unexplored region in North Pyeng An Do and the Korean settled section of Manchuria, which begins opposite Cho San county and extends north and northwest for an indefinite distance. There are 181 enrolled believers and about 300 Christians alto-. gether. A great many old, long established stations don t have any more work developed than that. It costs too much to work the field from here. Mr. Ross spent about...
